Forty minutes late! This city!
You came by car?
Would I have arrived?

3. THE FARE.

Should I wait until after the ban for my money?
Have you seen how they ride?
You want bodas banned?

4. OUTSIDE UNCLE RWAMITI'S HOME.

Five. The motorcycle owner does not accept tea as payment.

Five minutes for tea?

Is there another charge?

Spill or Step?

Spill, answer honestly. Step, take a small challenge.

5. ON THE VERANDA.

Spill. Did you always want to ride a boda?

Pilot.

I still carry passengers. Just closer to the ground.

Captain Safari.

6. SAFARI'S PAST.

I helped at a garage. Some weeks there was work. Some weeks I waited.

7. BACK ON THE VERANDA.

But riding on pavements? Going through red lights?

I have used the pavement. Once, a woman had to jump away.

Exactly.

I was chasing a fare. She was just walking.

8. LOOKING TOWARDS THE ROAD.

This morning a passenger told me, 'Use the side. I'm late.'

You could refuse.

I can. Sometimes I do. Sometimes I want the money.

9. REMEMBERING THEIR JOURNEY.

You said there were people walking.

Yes.

I told you the other riders were passing.

YOUR MOVE

You are Jessica. What would you write now?

A Enforce the safety rules. I must stop asking riders to break them.

B Before banning bodas, show us how people will get to work.

C Safari, what would help you earn a living while riding safely?

Or write your own response.
What would your answer leave unresolved?
